Behind the Veil to Intuitive Tarot Reading

we appreciate that not everyone reads with their intuition but to do so can be very satisfying.

The Behind the Veil course will help to develop your confidence in your intuitive skills for your Tarot readings.

The course encourages the student to look for the 'flow' within readings, to look for patterns and make associations in during this process.

Unique exercises within the course material are designed to help bring you to a new level of understanding of how to tune in to the intuitive aspect of your unconscious thought.

We encourage you to meet the High Priestess and the Magician on an unusual journey, so you can familiarize with these incredible archetypes.

Importantly, this course shows you how the power of the images of the cards can influence readings and add further layers of insight.

Have you heard of Intuitive problem solving, if not, then you will do when you carry out the course?

It is a style of Tarot reading that Lara Houston employs when carrying out her own readings. It allows the intuition to guide you and the complete message from the reading can then empower the individual within any given situation.

You can offer the best possible guidance or solution.

This is an interesting course that asks you to think outside the box and for those who want to develop their intuition further and understand how to apply this to their reads.

Behind the Lines of the Celtic Cross

$30 (Members pay $25)

The Traditional Celtic Cross spread that we refer to and teach in this course is the same layout as referred to over 100 years ago by Arthur Waite in, 'The Key to the Tarot'.

The Celtic Cross spread layout was illustrated in the book that went along with his deck publication (1909)

Historically, the spread was used especially in England and has been described as a 'gypsy method' often.

It really does allow varied angles of perspectives within the issue.

In keeping with the tradition of the spread, there would often be a clarifier card alongside the outcome card. This would make the main part of the cross 11 cards instead of 10 but we focus on the main reading plus an additional 4 cards that we call the 'Fan'.

The fan is simply for further information for the reader's benefit.

There is something wonderful about this spread.

The tradition and history that has been passed down through the many years gives us a very special connection as a reader.

You will find it a very manageable way to learn how to read the Celtic Cross spread due to very carefully detailed step by step tuition

Our aim is that by the time you complete this course, you will feel confident enough to enjoy reading the Celtic Cross.

The Spiritual Journey Through the Major Arcana

$70 (Members pay $59)

Introducing the 3 Courses: Spiritual Journey of the Major Arcana.

It may be surprising to know that the spiritual journey of the Soul and how it develops, is depicted through the Major Arcana. This offers us and our clients the potential of guidance that takes Tarot to another level.

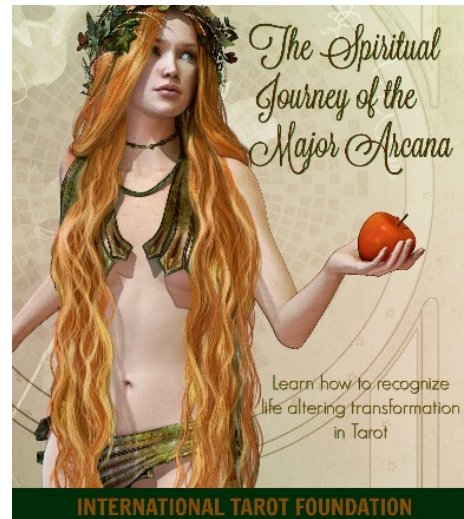

We will be taking a journey back in time to the days of Plato, the great Greek Philosopher who brought us his theory and understanding of the three parts of the Soul.

As Tarot readers, we can recognize life changing experiences and influences that our client may be facing.

The Majors offer us wisdom that has been the subject of scholarly discussion and debate over the centuries. This course will therefore be considering aspects of these life experiences, how they are reflected in the Major Arcana and importantly how they link additionally to Soul development.

For this course we will be referring to the deck, Tarot of the Sevenfold Mystery created by Robert Place.

The inspiration to further my own spiritual development and study of the subject was formed initially from reading the very insightful book of Robert's; The TAROT History, Symbolism and Divination.

To give you an idea of the topics, please see the discussion that are within Course 1

Session 1: A Matter of Perspective

The Triumvirate of Man

The Soulful Fool

Session 2: The Immortal Soul

Tarot Works with Numerology

$50 (Members pay $42)

This wonderfully, informative numerology and Tarot Learning Resource will increase your awareness and understanding of the influence of numbers within Tarot.

We initially take you back to the days of Pythagoras who gave characteristics to each individual root numbers.

We look at how the key Major Arcana cards can bring further insight and understanding to the reading and how Tarot Birth cards offer you valuable insight into the reactions of your sitter within the situations in their life.

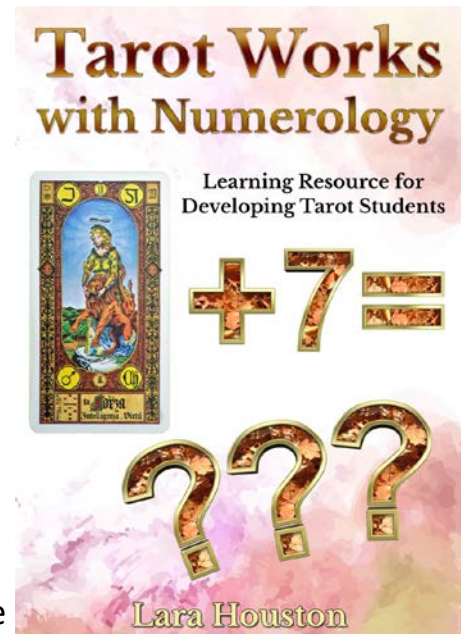

If you are looking for more insights to your readings, then this course is perfect for you.

The understanding that is given with Numerology will also help validate that you are on the right track!

The course consists of 11 Sessions, each with individual exercises within each session and finally comes together with a personal reading on the eleventh session. You will then put into practice what you have learnt throughout this course.

As with all the other courses, you will be mentored throughout.

Elementally Speaking

The elements and their association with Tarot offer us wonderful insight and understanding but they can easily cause confusion when not fully understood. The aim of this course is to help you to make sense of how the elements interact and how they influence our Tarot readings.

Those who are coming to the course with no prior knowledge of the elements' affect within a Tarot reading, will benefit from the structured format of learning that takes the student from the base, foundation level and upwards.

The method of teaching style is with the purpose of reinforcing the learning and supporting the student in his/her understanding of the association of the elements with Tarot.

The already knowledgeable student will have opportunity to reinforce some fundamental basics of elemental dignities and be able to pick up some useful perspectives along the course that can help them further their understanding.

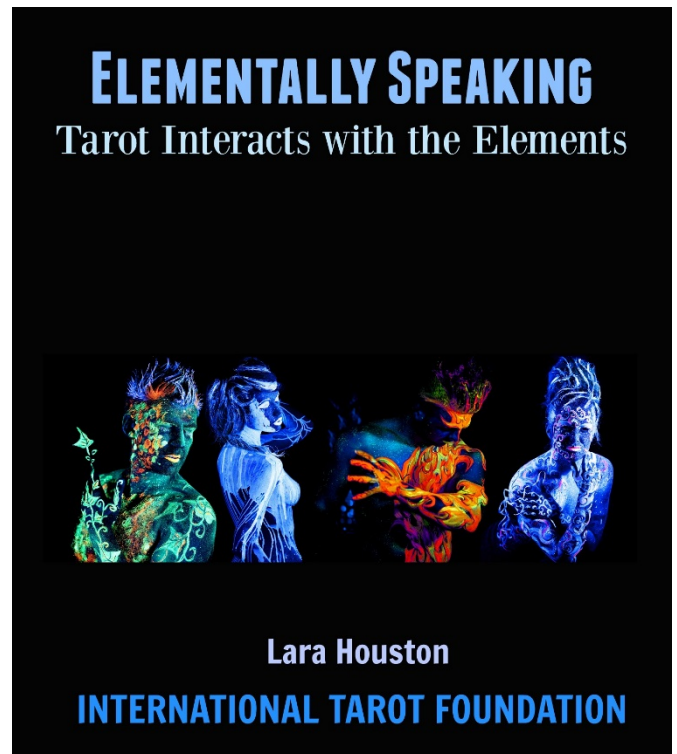

The elements of the cards and how they interact bring another level of insight to your Tarot reading.

You will discover which interactions are stronger and how much influence the cards are having on the individual at the time of reading.

Some reads will have more significance than others, especially if the elements are 'active'. If they are considered a 'weak' interaction, then the effect will be less felt for the individual who the reading is for.

It really does open a new and interesting association to your reads.

Tarot & the 12 Houses of Astrology

$70

The impressive Tarot and Astrology course that is written by Pearl Annie.

We can thank the Golden Dawn for initially adding astrological associations to the Tarot cards.

Each card is now characterised astrologically, for example, the Hermit, is associated with Virgo so learning more about the nature of Virgo, we can learn and understand more about the nature of the card.

With the Hermit and Virgo we see the seeker of knowledge, who will go to great lengths to find interesting food for thought or Gemini and the Lovers and how the card's energy talks of finding one's twin, the piece that fits!

You will find this a resourceful, supportive and extremely interesting course of study where your knowledge will widen in many aspects of the deeper side of Astrology and it's relationship with Tarot.

It is a significant course and one which benefits from wonderful supporting resources and the excellent mentoring from Pearl Annie who wrote this course. The astrological associations will bring another layer of insight to your Tarot readings and take them to a new and interesting depth.

The Tarot and 12 Houses spread features as part of the syllabus for this course and is a significant element.

The insight offered with this spread is broad and can be very accurate, giving an all round picture of what to expect in one's life now or in the near future.

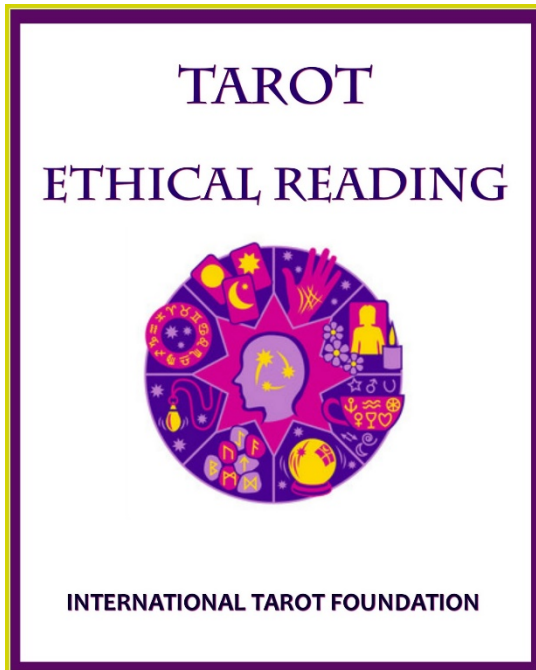

A Certificate is awarded upon completion.

The Ethical Tarot Reader

$40

Tarot reading of the past carries the stereotypical, fortune teller image of Gypsy Rose Lee and her crystal ball. This image is fading, especially as Tarot is becoming more widely practised and studied. I do feel that the face of Tarot reading is changing.

Tarot reading is an Art and a serious study which is becoming more recognized.

The aim of this part of the course is for you, the student, to be able to recognize principles of good practise within your 'work'. Of course, many will always be implementing these principles as second nature and without realizing.

Our Code of Ethics at the ITF will be the foundation of reference and understanding during this course, but we appreciate that students may have a desire to consider their own ethos regarding ethics and this will be encouraged too.

The sessions within this course ask you to evaluate critically your own bias or prejudice and discuss how you may already promote a non-judgmental attitude within your Tarot reading.

We have a couple of real-life situations for you to including a couple of the real-life situations for you to analyze.

In all, you should find this an enlightening course.

Why Certification?

Mention Tarot Certification and some readers are intrigued and some probably haven't given much thought to Tarot qualification.

Here at the International Tarot Foundation, we recognize the value of such study and the benefits that becoming qualified with an official trainer can bring.

Tarot study along with its associative studies offers the potential of enhancing Tarot insight and wisdom.

Tarot reading can be a purely natural, intuitive process or it can be an in-depth study over many years and often it is a combination of both. After all, ask any Tarot reader and they will readily admit that they are always learning and always the student.

Our aim is to offer a course of study that enables the reader to be the very best in their field, one that befits the professional, knowledgeable reader or the reader who wants to become professional.

It is also true that many clients will appreciate the reassurance of a qualification.

If you are looking for an easily acquired certificate and qualification then this is not the course of study for you but if you want to join a select group of professional Tarot Masters, who have now been on the course for almost 2 years then you are exactly where you need to be!

You may have seen 'other' Tarot Certification courses that last maybe several months only or consist of a very small number of courses, well our Tarot Master Certification is substantial and offers quality learning and mentoring. Students of the Certification that we conduct are now almost completing their second year of study-this is a substantial focus on you, the student and bringing the best reader out of you!

We accept beginners or advanced readers and can support students who have specific difficulties in learning.

Above all, we pride ourselves on the standards we set and the level of commitment that we offer to our students.

Some of the courses are compulsory and these work hand in hand with our ethos here at the Foundation.

How to Share the Student Response Document with your Mentor

Step 1:

If you have carried out one or more sessions and would like your mentor to look and offer comments, then you can share your document with him/her.

You will see on the document, a blue tab that says SHARE. Hover your mouse over this tab and the black box as shown in the image below will pop open.

It is fine to now continue by clicking on the blue share tab as this is just a regular notification regarding the sharing facility.

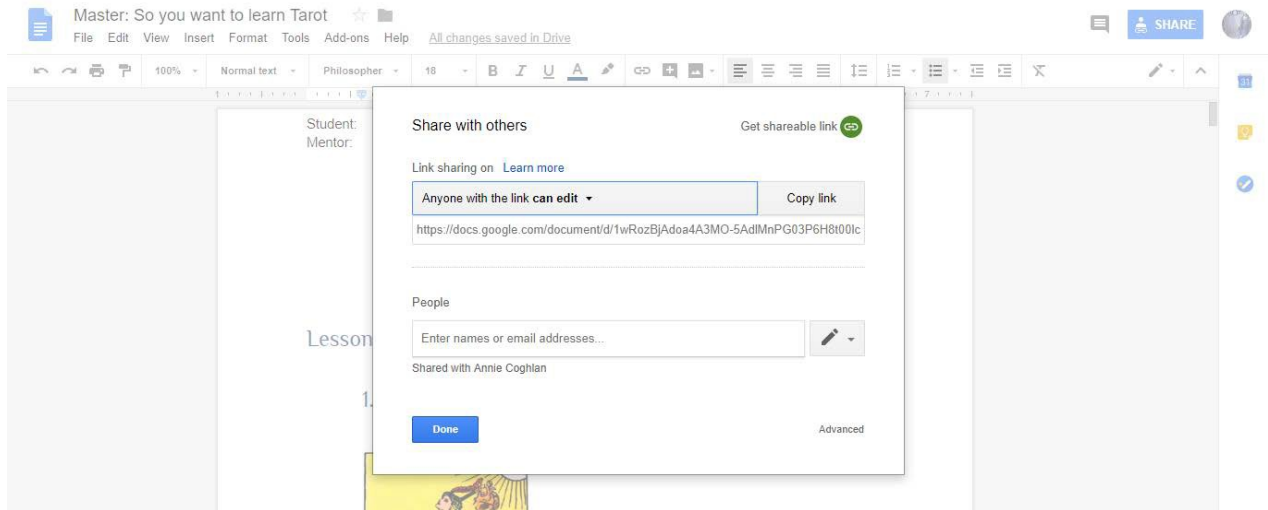

The screenshot shows a Google Docs interface. The document title is "Master: So you want to learn Tarot". The menu bar includes File, Edit, View, Insert, Format, Tools, Add-ons, and Help. The toolbar shows various editing options. The document content includes a form with fields for Student, Mentor, Student's Email, Mentor's Email, and Date, with "Course 1" entered in the Date field. The main text reads "So you want to learn Tarot" in red, followed by "Student and Mentor Shared Mentor Document" in bold black, "Lesson 1: The Fool The Magician and The High Priestess" in blue, and "1.0 The Fool" in blue. A small illustration of a tarot card is visible at the bottom. No sign-in required."

Step 3:

Next, a box will appear that allows you to write a message to the person that you have shared with.

Click 'done' (blue tab below) when you have finished, even if you have not decided to write a message.

Step 4:

A notification email will have now been sent to the mentor, who will be linked the document so that they can open it from the email.

When the mentor has responded on the document, he/she will then follow this same procedure to share back with you.

This allows you to receive a notification and know that your mentor has responded.

As shown in the image below, once shared, you will see a pop up saying 'Shared with one person.'

Please Note:

After each time you work on the document, adding responses or making changes the document will automatically save.
